

Membership in the Port Washington Historical Society

Thank you for your interest in joining the Port Washington Historical Society. As we begin our 25th year of preserving the stories of our community, its people and its rich history, support from members is vital in making our vision a reality.

Members directly empower us to offer exhibits and programming that relate to our understanding of Port Washington. The Port Washington Historical Society is unique in that it uses three facilities to not only interpret our history, but also to engage and educate local citizens and visitors about how our past shaped what you see today.

Become a member of the Port Washington Historical Society and make a difference in our community!
